Physician and Physician Group Representation

Physicians and physician groups face a multitude of business issues because of the intense regulatory requirements. Our skilled business transactions attorneys understand health care and can guide our clients through a myriad of complex legal issues. We routinely assist physicians and physician groups with:

- General corporate and business matters
- Physician compensation
- Provider-based contracting
- Stark Law and Anti-Kickback Statute compliance
- Sale and acquisition of practices
- Physician recruitment
- Noncompete analysis and litigation
- Creation of ancillary services
- Managed care contracting
- Billing and reimbursement issues
- Joint ventures
- Affiliations with other providers
- Call coverage issues
- Contract preparation and negotiations
- Medical staff issues
- Medical director and exclusive provider contracts
- Participation in integrated delivery systems
- Compliance program development and maintenance
- Employment issues
- Licensing matters
- HIPAA compliance and medical records management
- Governmental investigations
- Acquisition of major medical equipment

We have represented large and small groups in the following specialty areas:

- Multispecialty Groups
- Primary Care Clinics
- Internal Medicine Groups
- Hospital-Based Physicians
- Cardiology Groups
